Federal Affordable Connectivity Program

You may be eligible to save money on your internet plan through this program. Here is a link to the affordable connectivity website. You may be able to use this letter to help show that our school is universally eligible for free lunches. Give it a try and let me know if it works for your family.

Financial Assistance Available

The Olympia School District Education Foundation provides support to families in need. With their support, we can help with:

- Rent and utility bills
- Clothing and shoes
- Eye exams and prescription glasses for students
- Transportation
- School supplies
- School-related expenses
- Internet through Xfinity and so much more...

Our new Family Liaison this year is Genevieve Carnes (gcarnes@osd.wednet.edu). Please reach out directly to her if you need assistance of any kind.

Fall Fun Fest a Huge Success

Thank you to everyone who helped to plan and/or participate in the Fall Fun Festival at our school this last week. It was a blustery and rainy day, but that didn't stop us. It looked like fun was had by all. These events are a lot of work to plan. Thank you to everyone who helped.
